It's time to register for 2009-2010 classes!

What do you need to know to be ready?

by Jayme Cambra, Head Counselor

February will be the start of the registration process for Fall 2009. Like last spring, San Dieguito School District requires all current and incoming high school students to select their high school of attendance via our online high school selection process. To select a high school, students and parents are asked to visit our district website high school selection link: http://www.sduhsd.k12.ca.us/parents\_students/hs-selection-09.htm. This website also has information and online resources available for each school site. All current and incoming students must select their high school by Wednesday February 4th at 3:00pm. Students will be able to select one of the comprehensive high schools or apply for one of two academies. Lottery selections for the academies will take place February 23rd.

What does that mean for students in terms of requesting courses for next year? Along with the selection website, TPHS will kick-off its Fall 2009 course request process in February. This year TPHS is excited to announce that we will continue the Aeries online course selection feature! Students and families will be asked to select and submit course requests online and will be able to make changes while the website remains open. This is a great way to not only minimize errors of data entry, but also to prepare students for the same process at the university and college level!

How will on line course requesting work?

Counselors will begin visiting English classes for current 9th, 10th and 11th grade students in the second week of February to share course offerings, explain requirements, distribute registration contracts and review the online process. Students will then be asked to log into their Aeries ABI Portal account to submit their course requests as early as February 9th. PLEASE NOTE: STUDENTS OR FAMILIES MUST HAVE AN ACTIVE AERIES ABI PORTAL ACCOUNT TO BE ABLE TO SUBMIT COURSE SELECTIONS (To activate your account, come to the Counseling Department and speak with our counseling secretaries, Helen Corkran or Autumn Wallace.) Counselors will return to classes during the week of February 23rd to meet with each individual student to review their submission and collect their signed registration contracts. We require that parents and students sign the registration contract before turning it in to their counselor to confirm that students have discussed their course selections with their parents. Having student course requests in as early as possible allows us to build a master schedule that caters to the needs of our students—make sure to submit early!

Current students have until Friday, March 6th to make or change their course requests through our AERIES ABI parent portal. After this date, students are required to visit their counselor to request course changes for the 2009-2010 school year. The last day for students to make final changes to next year's course selections is Friday, May 29th.

Incoming 9th graders will be invited to attend our Student Parent Registration Night on March 18th in the TPHS Gym. Incoming 9th grade parents and students will then return to TPHS on either March 25th or March 26th to meet individually with a counselor and turn in their course selections and registration contract. For specific questions regarding incoming 9th grade course options please visit our counseling website.

For more information, please visit www.tphs.net and click on the Counseling Department link. Please remember, if you have not activated your student's Aeries Portal Account, do so now! The Aeries portal provides copies of student attendance, grades, transcripts and more!!

Key Dates to Remember:

- February 4th: High School selection deadline
- March 6th: Current TPHS student course request submission deadline
- May 29th: Deadline to submit changes to course requests

CHOICES, CHOICES, CHOICES!

Since the advent of academies in our District (Canyon Crest Academy and San Dieguito Academy), we have naturally established means by which students and families may have access to these high schools. Another educational choice in our district is Sunset High School and North Coast Academy. This has been nice, and it sets us apart from most districts which offer little or no choice—students generally must attend the boundary high school that serves that area in which they reside. This idea of choice expanded dramatically several years ago when the District began to dialogue about the possibility of allowing students to choose any high school that they wanted to attend from among five choices. This idea was possible to implement for one very special reason: ALL of our schools are good, solid choices. They are all different, but they are all high-performing.

Much like investigating colleges, each of our schools has cultures, traditions, and programs that may be the most appropriate fit for your student. It is not uncommon now to have siblings at several different campuses in our district, because kids within our own families can be very different. As a principal, I am especially proud of Torrey Pines High School, and all of our schools in the district. It feels good to be confident in what we offer and give people the informed chance to do what they feel is right for their kids. Last year, all freshmen were able to attend the high school that they selected through online high school selection, and there was no need for the lottery. That was terrific. We are now in our third year of choice—high school selection—and I want to thank all of you for doing the school research that you needed to do, including attending the Choices Nights, and for making this process work. We want your kids to thrive at Torrey Pines High School, and at any of our fantastic schools!

Another element to choice is private versus public high school. We know that many families look at these choices in addition to what we offer at Torrey Pines High School and in our District. I respect our neighboring private schools; they are all doing a great job. The healthy competion in our area only makes us better as a school, and I believe that Torrey Pines High School can stand shoulder-to-shoulder with the very best public and private schools San Diego.

One final choice issue: Course Selection. Our students have the opportunity to make thoughtful and informed choices when it comes to course selection. This is terrific, but it can present some pitfalls. We do offer a plethora of Advanced Placement courses, and most of the students are careful to achieve a balance between taking these courses and being well-rounded. We encourage our students to strive for that balance; we would rather have them thrive with a combination of college preparatory courses, advanced placement courses, and extra-curricular activities, than potentially struggle due to trying to take on too much. Thanks, in advance, for engaging in careful dialogue with your child during the Spring when they are making course selections! I appreciate your feedback—any questions, comments, concerns, or ideas to improve are welcome!

Marketing Students Spend a Day at Posh Resort

by Jim Anthony, Business Department Chair

Students in the Torrey Pines Marketing program recently spent a day meeting and mixing with corporate CEO's and finance gurus from the world of business. Twenty students from the Marketing classes went to the St. Regis Monarch Beach Resort and Spa on January 14, 2009 to take part in the ICR Exchange. This conference hosts companies such as GUESS, Volcom, Fossil, Kenneth Cole, Crocs, Ruth's Chris, Rubio's, and many others as they present their prospects for the upcoming period to potential investors. In addition, the students were asked to sit on a panel hosted by Piper Jaffray and field questions from many of these corporate CEO's about the student's impressions of the company's products. Marketing teacher Jim Anthony was thrilled with the opportunity given his students – "this is the third time we have been asked to attend and the conference is amazing for the young people. This year we were the only high school group in California to be invited. The students realize what a great chance this is to see the world of high finance in action." Students observed presentations by companies, served on the panel and visited one-on-one with the executives in small group settings. Student Diego Navarro was ecstatic about his day, "this was an awesome day. Some day I'm coming back to this conference as a CEO." These real-life experiences are what help to make the Torrey Pines Marketing class one of the most talked about classes on campus.

accolades & Appreciation

Thanks to the creative efforts of seniors Rachel Kao and Elise Chen, five new Torrey Pines trees grace the front of our school.

The girls raised the money to buy the trees by selling wallets made from empty Capri Sun boxes and by holding a dance last summer. Thank you Rachel and Elise for this lasting gift of beauty to TPHS!

Bravo to the Cast, Student Director, Designers, and Crew of "The School for Scandal." Not only did they have a successful run in November, they have been invited to perform a scene at the CETA (California Educational Theatre Association) Festival in January. They were selected from the Area IV schools who entered the adjudication process, and were one of the top 3 schools selected from our area! √

Congratulations to Christina Kuo (12) and Evelyn Jiang (9), who have made the All-State Honor Choir, a first for Torrey Pines! They have now been invited to sing at the American Choral Director's Association California Convention this March in Pasadena. Well done, Christina and Evelyn!

Congratulations to all the VPA students involved in TPHS Visual Performing Arts Day on December 15th. Student audiences were delighted by student presentations of music, theater, dance, video film, and visual art in all three periods that day. What a lot of wonderful talent we have here at TP!

Catherine Mintz' 3rd period Economics class recently won the overall prize in the ASB-sponsored Canned Food Drive by collecting the most cans of food during the four week collection period. As top prize earners, they received a cash prize of $250 to spend on something for their classroom. The class also celebrated their victory with a cultural exchange during their class period on December 19, when they brought in food and celebrated the season. We are all so proud of Mrs. Mintz and her class! √

Congratulations to the recently chosen TPHS Academic Teams for 2009 (see page 4 for list), which have already participated in their first national competition, the Knowledge Master Open. This is a computerized contest that all registered schools take on the same day. Out of 683 schools across the country, TPHS scored first in California and second in the nation! The students did a FANTASTIC job!!!

Reminders from the Health Office by Laura Hernandez, Health Tech

This is the time of year when many cases of mono are reported. If your student has mono, a doctor's note will be needed to clear the student to return to school.

Students who are ill should not come in to school to take a test or turn in work. They can communicate with teachers through email or phone to make future arrangements. Getting peers to deliver assignments will prevent the further spread of illness.

New Fitness Room for P.E. Students and Staff!

Using $55,000 in grant money from the State of California, P.E. teacher Burt Blackwell has transformed a former math classroom into an amazing fitness room for P.E. students and staff. Located in Room 98, the new fitness room is equipped with 31 pieces of equipment including treadmills, bicycles, ellipticals/Xtrainers, and stair climbers. The room also features rubber flooring and mirrors. "The fitness room works well with the Year One/ P.E. Health component," according to Blackwell.

As an added bonus, the room can be used by staff before and after school, and during school if room allows.

Junior Audits- Feb 2009

During the first week in January, the counselors visited our US History classes for our annual junior Audits. During these class presentations we reviewed the following information:

- Review student transcripts
- High school graduation requirements
- AP/ Honors course work
- Post high school options
- SAT /ACT test content and dates
- UC/CSU A-G requirements
- College application and letter of recommendation process

The audits provide a great opportunity and environment for students to ask questions about their individual plans after school and aid in planning ahead for their senior year. For further information or to access our junior audit presentation, please visit our TPHS counseling website at www.tphs.net > counseling > high school then select the junior audit.

Mira Costa College Matriculation in a Day Program

Seniors who are interested in attending Mira Costa College during the 2009 summer session or fall 2009 semester can complete the orientation, advisement and registration during Mira Costa's Matriculation in a Day Program for seniors on Friday, March 13, 2009.

This is an all-day event. A bus will transport students from TP to Mira Costa (San Elijo campus) and will bring them back around 1:30 p.m.

Students will take both placement tests (English and Math), followed by a new student orientation to the college. Following the orientation, a pizza and salad lunch will be served, followed by an advisement session with a college counselor. After completion of this program, students are "matriculated" and will receive early priority registration privileges. For more information, please contact our counseling secretary, Helen Corkran at ext. 2295 or by email at Helen.Corkran@sduhsd.net.

A Reminder from the Attendance Office:

Students who are too sick to be at school need to leave through the Health Office (not the Attendance Office). The Health Tech will call parents for permission to release the student and get them on their way promptly.

High Performance Computer Cluster Donated to TPHS

by Abby Brown, Math Teacher

Torrey Pines High School received a parallel computer system for use in the Advanced Topics in Mathematics II class. The system was donated by the High Performance Computing (HPC) Advisory Council, a group of over sixty companies who work together to better educate the public about parallel computing and coordinate efforts for developing HPC technology. After hearing about her work with technology, the HPC Advisory Council selected math teacher Abby Brown to have the first high school class to work on a project of this kind. The sixteen-processor cluster in Brown's classroom was built by five companies: Colfax International (computers), AMD (processors), Mellanox Technologies (InfiniBand hardware to link computers), Microsoft (operating system), and Wolfram Research (Mathematica software). This single setup has the power of sixteen computers. Large problems can be broken into smaller pieces for faster computation and then are brought back together for a final result. Representatives from Mellanox, AMD, and Wolfram Research came to TPHS in December to install the computers and meet with Brown and seniors Mostafa Al-Alusi, Parker Clark, Evan Laveman, William Minter, and Tara Wu who are leading the project for the students. The visitors also spoke to the Advanced Topics class about parallel computing and its applications in the real world.

School Site Council held our last meeting on Tuesday, January 6, 2009; once again, the Council reviewed requests for funding. Four proposals were reviewed and discussed, and three of the four items were approved for funding.

The meeting was well attended, as we had several students representing the ASB class observing how Site Council meetings are conducted. The Torrey Pines High School Safety plan was submitted to the council and was approved.

A report was presented from the English Language Learners representative Mrs. Joanne Serrano. She reported the Breakfast Club is up and running with the support of three teachers from TPHS.

Dave Hylen, TPHS Foundation representative, reported that January 13th is Torrey Pines night at Pacific Coast Grill. Also, March 21st is the annual fundraiser at The Belly Up and April 25th is the annual Rummage Sale.

GRAD NITE 2009

"The Inauguration Class of '09" is the theme of this year's all night celebration for graduating seniors. Historically, this one evening has been the single most dangerous evening for graduating teens across the nation. Keeping this in mind the Grad Nite Committee headed up by Chair Denise Small researched all options and carefully selected a team of experts who specialize in teen events to host a spectacular evening at a MYSTERY LOCATION. Members of the Grad Nite Committee visited the site to experience first hand all that it has to offer and can testify to its safety and uniqueness. Only Torrey Pines graduates will be attending this venue. The location will remain secret to insure a safe and secure event. Graduates will be transported to and from Torrey Pines in luxury motor coaches. The venue offers many more activities geared specifically for their age group than in the past. Party information and sign-up forms will be mailed to parents of every senior student within the next few weeks. Forms will also be available on the TPHS Foundation website under GRAD NITE.
